- d. Sections 16, 17 and 18 will apply in their entirety.

15. Voting and Counting Ballots - Beshkbiige Ginjgewin

It is intended where appropriate in this section that Electoral Officer shall be deemed to include Deputy-Electoral Officer.

At any poll, eligible voters will vote in person and may be required to confirm his/her identity to the Electoral Officer using photo identification in order to receive a ballot on which to register his/her vote.

- (a) Any person representing himself/herself to be an eligible voter asked to confirm his/her identification and being unable to do so will be required to swear and sign an oath that he/she is the person he/she claims to be.
- (b) The Electoral Officer, when requested to do so, shall explain the method of voting to an eligible voter.
- (c) The Electoral Officer, once satisfied as to the true identity of the eligible voter, shall provide the eligible voter with a ballot, draw a line through the appropriate name on the master Voters' List, identify the poll station number beside the name and add any necessary comment beside the name as well. Immediately after any advance poll, and at timely intervals with any other polling places during the election poll, the Electoral officer will update the master Voters' List to ensure that eligible voters register and vote only (1) one time.
- (d) Each eligible voter receiving a folded ballot paper shall forthwith proceed to the compartment provided for marking ballots and shall mark his/her ballot by placing a cross (x) or check mark (✓) opposite the name of the candidate for whom he/she desires to vote. Each eligible voter shall vote no more than (1) one time and may vote for (1) one candidate for Chief and may vote for any number of candidates for Council to a maximum of (7) seven.
- (e) Voting
  - (i) While any eligible voter is in the compartment for the purpose of marking his/her ballot paper, no other person shall, except as provided in subsection (ii) below, be allowed in the same compartment or be in any position from which he/she can see the manner in which such eligible voter marks his/her ballot.
  - (ii) The Electoral Officer, at the request of any eligible voter who is unable to read or is incapacitated by blindness or other physical cause from voting in the manner prescribed in subsection (i) above, shall assist or can request one person, to assist such eligible voter and place such ballot in the ballot box.

- (iii) No person, except for the Electoral Officer, shall assist more than one eligible voter as described in subsection (ii) above.
  - (iv) In the case of (ii) above, the Electoral Officer shall write next to the eligible voter's name on the Voters' list the fact that the ballot paper was marked by him/her at the request of the eligible voter and why.
  - (v) Any eligible voter who has inadvertently dealt with his/her ballot paper in such a manner that it cannot be used shall, upon returning it to the Electoral Officer or his/her Deputy be entitled to replace the ballot paper and the Electoral Officer or his/her Deputy shall thereupon write the word "canceled" on the spoiled ballot paper and preserve it.
  - (vi) No eligible voter may vote by proxy or authorize another person to vote on their behalf.
  - (vii) Any eligible voter to whom a mail-in ballot was mailed or otherwise provided may obtain a ballot and vote in person at a polling place if the voter returns the mail in ballot to the Electoral Officer or his/her Deputy or if they have lost the mail in ballot, the voter provides the Electoral Officer or his/her Deputy with a written affirmation that the mail in ballot is lost, signed in the presence of the Electoral Officer or his/her Deputy or commissioner for oaths.
- (f) Each eligible voter or other person in the case of Section 15(e)(ii) above, upon leaving the voting compartment after having properly refolded the ballot paper so the Electoral Officer's initials are showing, shall proceed directly to where the ballot paper is to be placed in the ballot box.
  - (g) Any eligible voter who has received a ballot paper and who leaves the polling place without delivering the ballot paper to the Electoral Officer in the manner specified or, if after receiving the ballot paper refuses to vote, he/she shall forfeit his/her right to vote at the election.
  - (h) The Electoral Officer will, without unfolding the ballot paper and in full view of the eligible voter, verify that the validation initials are on the ballot paper and at once deposit the ballot paper into the ballot box.
  - (i) At the close of any advance poll and in view of at least (1) one witness, the ballot box(es) will immediately be sealed by the Electoral Officer without taking any count. The seal will be initialed by the Electoral Officer and the witness and the ballot box containing the ballots will be delivered to the First Nation Office and put in the safe where they shall be kept without disturbance until election day.

- (j) On Election Day, the Electoral Officer shall retrieve the ballot box(es) containing the ballots from an advance poll.
- (k) Immediately after the close of the election poll and in each poll location, the Electoral Officer shall in full view of those present, open the ballot box(es). In the case where there has been an advance poll, the ballot box from the advance poll will also be opened and the ballots from the advance poll will be placed, without counting, into an election ballot box.
- (l) The Electoral Officer in view of those present, open each envelope containing a mail in ballot received before the close of polls and without unfolding the ballot,
  - i. reject the ballot if:
    - a. It is not accompanied by a voter declaration form, or the voter declaration form is not signed or witnessed,
    - b. The voter declaration form does not contain a date of birth or a band number that matches the information contained for the eligible voter on the voters list,
    - c. The name of the voter set out in the voter declaration form is not on the voters list or,
    - d. The voters list shows that the eligible voter has already voted,
  - ii. in any other case place a mark on the voters list opposite the name of the eligible voter and deposit the ballot in the election ballot box.
- (m) The Electoral Officer shall examine the ballot papers keeping a count of the votes. The Electoral Officer shall reject all ballot papers:
  - (i) that are not validated with an appropriate initial, or
  - (ii) on which votes have been given for more candidates for Chief or Councillors than are to be elected except that such ballot paper shall be good for any position where the eligible voter has not voted for more candidates than are to be elected, or
  - (iii) upon which anything appears by which the voter can be identified, and where ballot papers are rejected, the Electoral Officer shall mark that ballot paper with the word “rejected” and his/her initials and keep a separate count and place them in an envelope marked “rejected”.

- (n) At the end of the paper ballot count on election day, the Electoral Officer shall confirm the results of the internet based voting and consolidate all counts to (1) one grand total for all polling.
- (o) Where the count shows that (2) two or more candidates have an equal number of votes for Chief, Deputy Chief or the final position of Councillor, the Electoral Officer shall use the Lot system to pick the successful candidate. The Lot shall be conducted by placing the names of the candidates on equal size pieces of paper in a box and the name drawn by the Electoral Officer shall be the successful candidate.
- (p) When the grand total from (n) is known and any necessary action from (o) has been taken, the Electoral Officer will communicate with all polling places providing the grand total count and indicating the exact time at which the count at all polling places must be simultaneously announced and candidates publicly confirmed as elected.
- (q) After the public announcement, the Electoral Officer will make and sign a temporary written statement of the number of votes given to each candidate and the number of ballot papers rejected and post it.
- (r) Immediately after the completion of (q) above, all ballots including those in the “rejected” envelopes will be securely delivered from all polling places to the Electoral Officer.
- (s) The Electoral Officer will place all ballot papers and Voters’ Lists into (1) one ballot box or other secure box, lock and seal the box and deliver the box to the First Nation Office for placement in the safe.
- (t) Within (3) three days of the election, the Electoral Officer shall cause a formal, signed report of the results of the election to be published and circulated in the community and he/she shall also post copies in some conspicuous places. A copy of the formal report shall also be forwarded to each candidate and a copy filed in the First Nation Office.

16. Disposition of Ballot Papers

At a minimum (6) six weeks after the Election, the Electoral Officer shall destroy the ballot papers in the presence of (2) two witnesses who shall sign a declaration that they witnessed the destruction of the ballot papers, unless a notice of appeal has been received. Where a notice of appeal has been received, ballot papers must not be destroyed until the appeal procedure is complete.

17. Recount

- (a) A recount will be held only if:
  - (i) any candidate or any eligible voter who voted requests a recount in writing not later than (14) fourteen days after the election, and
  - (ii) if the number of votes separating a candidate who was not declared elected and another candidate for the same position who was declared elected is (5) five votes or less.
- (b) The Electoral Officer will perform the recount.
- (c) The Electoral Officer may appoint assistants to help at a recount.
- (d) If there is a request for a recount that meets the criteria of (a)(ii) above, the Electoral Officer will personally notify and make a record of the notification of all candidates who could be affected by such a recount of the time and place of the recount which shall be no later than (4) four days after the request has been received.
- (e) The Electoral Officer shall retrieve, from the First Nation safe, all ballots and documents relating to the election and securely deliver them to the place of the recount.
- (f) Candidates who could be affected by the recount may be present in person or may designate (1) one agent in writing to represent them at the recount or choose not to attend the recount proceedings at all.
- (g) The candidate who requested a recount must attend the recount and have full view of the ballots as they are counted.
- (h) Eligible voters who voted in the election may attend and witness the recount.
- (i) Upon completion of the recount, the Electoral Officer shall announce the results to those present in the proceedings and the results will be final.
