Nipissing First Nation is a vibrant and culturally rich community committed to providing comprehensive support and services to its youth and young adults. We are currently seeking a dedicated and compassionate Post Majority Worker to join our team. Under the guidance of the Post Majority Supervisor, this role is essential in ensuring the safety and well-being of youth and young adults transitioning out of care until the age of 26. Our mission is to prioritize safety and provide support through personalized services, empowering the youth to lead fulfilling lives as they navigate their individual well-being journey.

What you'll do in the role

- Participate in planning for transitioning youth/young adults including identifying and maintaining connection to family, extended family, and community.
- Contact former and existing youth and young adults in care who meet the post majority criteria to enroll in voluntary services with the Post Majority Care program.
- Provide input into workplans.
- Ensure appropriate cultural opening when coordinating meetings within Nipissing First Nation, for client's, families, communities, and other collaterals.
- Actively seek guidance from the cultural staff on how to incorporate culture into the position or how to work from a cultural perspective.
- Provide wrap-around support that meets the distinct needs and promotes holistic positive outcomes for thriving Nipissing First Nation youth and young adults.
- Support youth and young adults to be fully independent and identify their own interests to support their well-being for their life-long success.
- Support youth and young adults to participate in cultural programming.
- Support youth in referrals to internal and external services
- Adhere to policies, procedures, and relevant practices.
- Ensure confidentiality and safekeeping of all documents and records.
- Maintain accurate, up-to-date, and concise work files.
- Follow human resources, finance and other policies and procedures in the performance of duties.
- Act in accordance with Nipissing First Nation's Code of Ethics and always maintain confidentiality to protect the privacy of the staff, families, and communities.

Employment Opportunity

- Perform additional related duties in accordance with job responsibilities and department objectives.
- Participate in training, cultural events and other mandatory training as required.
- Other duties as required or assigned.
